

Meet Katrina

After the passing of her primary caregiver, Katrina found connection, confidence, and community through a United Way donor-funded inclusion program — and she's thriving because of it.

Everyone deserves to feel like they belong. You are increasing access to safe, inclusive spaces where people can connect to community and increase their quality of life.

United is the Way forward.
Donate today.

"I like volleyball, art, swimming, and dancing. I enjoy painting because it's fun. My favorite thing to paint is animals."

United Way
Halifax

